UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

COLONEL W. R. ALAN DAYTON

Col Alan Dayton serves as the Commander and Professor of Aerospace Studies of the Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps, Detachment 157 for Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University, Bethune-Cookman University, Daytona State College, Stetson University and the University of Central Florida – Daytona Beach Campus. Colonel Dayton is responsible to the Universities and AFROTC for recruiting, training, and educating Air Force officer candidates. He instructs courses in leadership, national security, and air power history. He is responsible for who is accepted, trained, and ultimately commissioned as Second Lieutenants in the United States Air Force and Space Force.

Col Dayton is a distinguished graduate of AFROTC at N.C. State University. He has multiple operational deployments, flying combat and combat support missions in Kosovo, Afghanistan, and Iraq. He served as an undergraduate navigator training instructor and an Air Force Presidential Advance Agent. He also served as the command electronic warfare officer for both III Corps Artillery and II Marine Expeditionary Force in Iraq. Following an Air Officer Commanding tour at the U.S. Air Force Academy, he commanded the 82d Reconnaissance Squadron employing reconnaissance aircraft throughout the Pacific Theater. Col Dayton served in a variety of staff assignments, to include the Joint Staff and Air Combat Command, and deployed as the Joint Air Component Coordination Element for Operation INHERENT RESOLVE. Prior to his current position, he commanded the 55th Mission Support Group where he led over 1,670 personnel supporting 7.5M square feet of facilities valued at $9 billion dollars. The group provided mobility processing to over 3,000 deployed personnel per year and services to 57,000 active duty, dependent and retired personnel.
